Students who are eligible to attend an Iowa public school, but who are not legal residents of the school district, may be admitted into the school district at the discretion of the superintendent or his/her designee upon application and payment of tuition. Resident students whose families move from the school district after the third Friday in September and who wish to complete the school year in the school district, may be permitted to attend without the payment of tuition at the discretion of the superintendent or superintendent designee. Students in grades eleven or twelve who are no longer residents of the school district, but were residents in the preceding school year, may continue to attend school until they graduate without the payment of tuition.
