Board Policy Document

STUDENT PERSONNEL

Series 500

Policy Title: Student Injury and Illness at School

Code Number: 504.10

When warranted, school personnel will notify the student's legal guardian when the student becomes ill or injured at school or school-sponsored events.

The District, while not responsible for medical treatment, transportation or medical expense of an ill or injured student, will have employees present to administer emergency or minor first aid if possible. As quickly as possible, an ill or injured child will be turned over to the care of their legal guardian(s) or alternate contact(s), or qualified medical employee(s) or emergency medical services.

Parents shall be provided and required to complete a Student Registration/Health and Safety Emergency Information Card at the beginning of each school year. It shall be the responsibility of the parent to return the card to their child's school and provide the District with updated information on the card.

First Adoption: April 25, 1989
